Cambridge Police Launch Twitter, Facebook

July 12, 2010 – Recently, the Cambridge Police Department began using Twitter and Facebook as a new way to communicate with and inform the public.

Recognizing that people, especially younger generations, now use social media as a way to get news, share information, and stay informed, Cambridge Police are now updating their Twitter and Facebook pages with information citizens need to know.

For updates, follow @CambridgePolice on Twitter and “Like” the Cambridge Police Department on Facebook. By doing so, you will receive information about news, upcoming events, links to our daily crime log, etc.
